

No. 20,616 Equity
Exhibit "B"

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

JOHN MORGAN THOMAS

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN,

I, John Morgan Thomas of Route No.1, Dickerson, Maryland being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, considering the certainty of death and uncertainty of the time thereof, and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs, and thereby be the better prepared to leave this world when it shall please the Almighty to call me hence, do therefore make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all wills by me heretofore made, in manner and form following, that is to say:

First, and principally, I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God and my body to the earth, to be decently buried at the discretion of my executor hereinafter named; and my Will is, that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be paid by my executor hereinafter named as soon after my decease as shall be convenient;

Second, I give, devise and bequeath to my son, Richard Thomas, the sum of five dollars ($5.00).

All the rest and residue of my estate, both real, personal and mixed, wheresoever situate, I give, devise and bequeath unto my executor hereinafter named for the following purposes:

I direct that my executor sell and dispose of all my said real and personal property as soon after my decease as may be convenient and practicable, and to divide the proceeds thereof, together with any other funds I may leave, equally between my daughter Margaret (Thomas) Fratto, of Philadelphia, Pa., and my nephew, David Morgan Jones, of Washington, D. C. share and share alike, absolutely and forever.

All the rest and residue of my estate, both real, personal and mixed, I give, devise, and bequeath to my _____ and _____ to them and their heirs and assigns forever, share and share alike, as tenants in common.
